

Veterinary M&A: A legal perspective

PE Hub

10.13.2022

The veterinary M&A market has been white hot for quite some time. There are numerous drivers of investment interest, including that veterinary businesses are largely cash-pay, non-cyclical, highly fragmented, facing high consumer demand and subject to a lighter regulatory framework relative to human health. In an article for PE Hub, partner Cyrus Abbassi covers several regulatory and corporate topics to track in the deal process.
