

Emily E. Heckert

PARALEGAL

Emily is a highly skilled senior immigration paralegal at Vorys Columbus office, with an emphasis in both immigrant and nonimmigrant visa petitions for family-based and employment-based cases. With extensive experience in managing multiple Applications for Permanent Employment Certification (PERMs) simultaneously, she has developed a deep understanding of the complexities of employment-based immigration and the nuances of each case. Emily plays a pivotal role in client communication, fact-gathering, legal research, and the meticulous preparation of a wide range of visa petitions, including E-2, H-1B, J-1, L-1, O-1 and TN applications. She is known for her ability to handle high volumes of work while maintaining exceptional attention to detail. Her proactive approach, strong organizational skills and commitment to client service ensure optimal outcomes for clients navigating the immigration process.
