Join us in Columbus, Ohio on February 26-27, 2026, for the 11th Annual Vorys Economic Development Incentives Conference. This annual event, which is co-presented by Vista Site Selection, is a premier gathering for professionals involved in economic development, public policy and real estate. It brings together industry leaders, government officials, developers and advisors to explore the latest trends, strategies and opportunities in economic development incentives.

2026 Event Highlights:

- Keynote Address: Hear from Pat Tiberi, President and CEO of the Ohio Business Roundtable, as he shares insights on the intersection of politics, policy and economic development.
- Interactive General Sessions: Dive into timely topics such as turning NIMBYism to YIMBYism and a case study on how Bedrock, a commercial real estate firm, is shaping the future of downtown Cleveland through development and public-private partnerships.
- Breakout Sessions: Choose from a variety of focused sessions tailored to different roles and industry sectors, covering infrastructure financing, energy trends, Ohio's incentive programs and more.
- Tech and EIS Demos: Explore innovative technologies and solutions in the lobby throughout the day.
- Networking Opportunities: Connect with peers and experts from across the U.S. at the welcome reception on February 26th and at the conference on the following day.

Whether you're looking to stay ahead of industry trends, learn best practices or build valuable relationships, this conference is designed to equip you with the knowledge and connections you need to succeed.
