Vorys attorneys Elizabeth Smith, Martha Brewer and Christopher Ingram will speak at the Ohio Alliance for Public Charter Schools 5th Annual Conference on December 7.

Their presentation, 'Cultivating Achievement through Good Corporate Governance,' will educate participants on certain ins and outs of Ohio Ethics Laws, as well as the importance of being involved with the Ohio Department of Education, the Auditor of State and the Ethics Commission. The session will also discuss new and important regulatory topics, including the requirements to retain IRS 501(c)(3) not-for-profit status and maintaining compliance with the IRS-990 form. Participants will learn best practices for Board meetings and Board governance.
