Anna Sanyal, an associate in the Vorys Columbus office, will be a panelist during a 2022 Kephart Fisher Virtual Business of Law Conference session titled "A Public-Private Legal Career: Challenges, Opportunities, and Ethics." The panel will bring together legal professionals who have spent significant time in both worlds and explore their career paths, their insights about making the move successfully, the potential benefits to clients and the public of lawyers who have worked in government and private practice, and the ethical and other types of challenges (sometimes) involved.
