

Events

ADR in the Wake of COVID-19

Related Professionals

Alycia N. Broz

James J. McMonagle

Related Services

Litigation and Appeals

6.24.2020

Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, most civil trials have been delayed until the courts can safely open to the public. Once courts open for trials, dockets will likely be backlogged with criminal and civil cases that were scheduled for trial to begin during the pendency of the stay-at-home order. It could be months before a litigant's civil case can be heard by a judge.

Join us for a complimentary webinar on Wednesday June 24, 2020 at 12 p.m. (ET) with former Ohio Supreme Court Justice Eve Lundberg Stratton, former Cuyahoga County Common Pleas Judge Jim McMonagle, and Vorys Partner Alycia Broz discussing efficient and economical ADR methods such as mediation and use of a retired judge to preside over your trial during and after the COVID-19 pandemic.

Click here to register for the webinar.

--

VORYS COVID-19 TASK FORCE

Vorys attorneys and professionals are counseling our clients in the myriad issues related to the coronavirus (COVID-19) outbreak. We have also established a comprehensive Coronavirus Task Force, which includes attorneys with deep experience in the niche disciplines that we have been and expect to continue receiving questions regarding coronavirus. Learn more and see the latest updates from the task force at vorys.com/coronavirus.