1.30.2019

Mike Ball and Jen Dunsizer, partners in the Vorys Columbus office and members of the labor and employment group, will host a complimentary webinar on January 30, 2019 from 12 p.m. to 1 p.m. ET on how to avoid hidden traps within employment and severance agreements. While employees hold significant value within the company, conflicts often arise when federal and state laws affect the terms of employment agreements. The webinar will provide attendees with an overview of common provisions and potential traps that may be found within many common agreements.
