Vorys is hosting a two-part webinar series to help attendees satisfy reporting requirements of the 5500 Series forms, while avoiding triggering audits. Part 1 of this webinar series, slated for August 7, 2018, will provide an in-depth overview of Form 5500, as well as the lessons learned since significant changes were implemented six years ago.

There has been an increase of IRS and Department of Labor financial statement audits based on information in employee benefit plans. Due to this audit increase, Part 2 of this webinar series on August 23, 2018, will discuss the audit financial statement process, what to expect, what to know, and steps you should take to protect a company in case of an audit.
