

Events

In-House Essential Conference 2016

Related Professionals

Jackie Ford

Jolie N. Havens

Victor A. Walton, Jr.

10.13.2016

Vorys and The Ohio State University will present a two-day program, In-House Essential: Law, Leadership and Executive Education for Corporate Counsel, on October 13-14, 2016. The program is designed for in-house counsel interested in executive education training and leadership topics. Program presenters include experienced in-house counsel, Moritz Law faculty and Vorys attorneys.

Topics the program will cover include:

- Essential Skills for Successful In-House Lawyers
- Legal Jeopardy: Whose Risk Is It?
- Principles of Effective Leadership
- Roles, Risks & Responsibilities of Serving on Boards
- Understanding Unconscious Bias and Building an Inclusive Team
- Managing Internal Complaints and Investigations
- Best Practices During an Investigation

Click here to view the full agenda, learn more and to register. Please note that registration is limited to in-house counsel only.

This course has been approved by the Supreme Court of Ohio Commission on Continuing Legal Education for 9.75 (general) and 1.50 (attorney conduct) CLE hours instruction.