International Legal Technology Association Conference 2009

Related Professionals

Julie K. Brown

8.26.2009

Vorys' Litigation Technology Manager, Julie Brown, will be presenting at the International Legal Technology Association Conference 2009 on August 26. She will be participating in two sessions.

'Controlling Litigation Support Costs: Strategies of Cost Control and Recovery' will discuss strategies to help departments become profitable while also offering competitive service to clients.

'How to Structure Your Litigation and Practice Support Department' will give guests insight into how to structure these departments and what is necessary to implement procedures and be successful.

To learn more about this conference, click here.