Vorys partner Suzanne Scrutton and Maureen Corcoran, president of Vorys Health Care Advisors, will be presenting at the Long-Term Care Conference on May 14, 2014, co-sponsored with Brady Ware & Company. The conference will focus on the developments within community and ICF/IDD services for those with developmental disabilities.

Their panel presentation will discuss the new regulations from CMS regarding home and community based services, which will have a significant effect on those providers who offer residential services.
