

Events

Opportunity Update: New Federal Initiatives to Support Rural Health Care Providers Webinar

Related Industries

Health Care

9.9.2020

With many rural hospitals struggling to survive amidst three distinct, simultaneous public health crises, the Trump administration has called for rapid agency action by executive order. On September 9, 2020, Vorys attorneys Matt Albers and Mairi Mull will provide an overview of the resulting initiatives and other recent regulatory changes from the order, followed by a discussion of the opportunities each may present for rural providers.

Click here to register for this complimentary webinar.