

Events

Recent Developments on Client Confidentiality and Related Topics

6.16.2016

Vorys Partner Pam Bresnahan will be a moderator for the panel “Recent Developments on Client Confidentiality and Related Topics” hosted by the American Bar Association on June 16, 2016. The panel will discuss the importance of confidentiality of client information and significant developments in this area, including the related areas of the work product doctrine, rules of evidence and procedure that bear on the preservation of all evidentiary and ethics protections.

Click here to learn more.