

Events

Worker Classification: What's New and What You Need to Do

Related Services

Employment Counseling

Labor and Employment

9.12.2013

Vorys attorney Linda Mendel will be a speaker at the American Bar Association's Joint Committee on Employee Benefits Webinar on September 12, 2013. Her presentation is titled Worker Classification: What's New and What You Need to Do.

The program will discuss the following:

- A brief summary of the worker classification issue
- A summary of the IRS Voluntary Classification Settlement Program, as modified by Announcements 2012-45 and 2012-46
- A discussion of the advantages and disadvantages of using the new IRS Voluntary Classification Settlement Program and its implications for employee benefit programs
- A discussion of the importance of proper worker classification when complying with the Affordable Care Act

Click here for more information and registration.