Vorys is proud to host a webinar series highlighting important topics in the consumer finance industry. Join us for one or all of the following topics currently scheduled.

October 23, 2018 | Noon - 1 p.m. ETClass Action and Litigation Update

Marcel Duhamel

This segment will provide a review of recent developments in consumer finance litigation and an analysis of emerging—or re-emerging—trends in litigation against consumer lenders, mortgage servicers, and others in the consumer finance industry. The presentation will also highlight specific compliance issues that are resulting in litigation against lenders and servicers.

What Else is New?

Lisa Babish Forbes

This portion of the program will explore the new world of electronic notarization, looking at how we got here, how it works, and the pros and cons of e-notaries.

November 14, 2018 | Noon - 1 p.m. ETThe ADA Applied to Websites in 2018: An Increased Liability Exposure for Businesses

Rodney Holaday & Chris LaRocco

The Americans with Disabilities Act became law pre-Internet but has been increasingly applied in litigation to business websites with related significant expense and undesirable headlines. Join us as we discuss the history of this law, its increased application to business websites, an explanation of WCAG standards often cited in demand letters and litigation, insurance and settlement considerations, and best practices to protect your business right now.
