SPEAKING ENGAGEMENT | 2.17.2026

Carey Jordan, chair of the Vorys intellectual property group, will participate in a panel as part of IPWatchDog's webinar series on February 17 at noon EST. The title of the webinar is "Optimizing the Chemistry Drafting Process – Where AI Actually Helps."

The discussion will focus on AI drafting tools and their use in drafting chemistry-related patent applications. The participants will use practical examples to demonstrate how AI can assist with early-stage drafting while preserving attorney control and judgment. Carey will be joined by Giulia Toti, head of life sciences and GTM for Ankar, and John Rearick, a partner with Cooley.
