SPEAKING ENGAGEMENT | 3.3.2026

Cory Catignani, a partner in the Vorys Orange County office and member of the labor and employment group, will speak at the RILA-RLC's Spring Legal Meeting in Washington, D.C. on March 3. The title of his presentation will be "Remote Work as a Reasonable Accommodation."

The presentation will focus on an increase in work-from-home requests as an accommodation as employers tighten return-to-office policies. Cory will offer a number of steps for considering remote work as an accommodation, including engaging in the interactive process, determining essential job functions, evaluating employee capabilities and more.
