4.2.2020

Vorys attorneys have fielded hundreds of questions from our first two webinars on the various business and legal implications of the coronavirus (COVID-19). The third installment of this multi-disciplinary webinar series is scheduled for Thursday, April 2 at noon ET. Vorys attorneys representing various practice areas and disciplines will come together to share their considerations as businesses navigate these turbulent times. Attorneys will briefly address each of the following topics and field as many questions as possible:

- Ongoing employment factors for businesses to consider
- Department of Labor (DOL) guidance for employers
- Employee benefits implications in the CARES Act
- Employer tax credits made available from federal relief bills
- Federal tax implications
- "Shelter-In-Place" and "Stay at Home" orders
- "Essential" vs. "Non Essential" businesses
- SBA and other available loans under the federal relief bills
- Bankruptcy: Changes to Small Business Reorganization Act of 2019
- Federal forecast
