Vorys, Sater, Seymour and Pease LLP is proud to announce that Alycia N. Broz, a partner in the Columbus office, has been selected as a member of Columbus Business First's Forty Under 40 class of 2009. Broz was selected from a competitive pool of nominees as one of the community's next generation of leaders and innovators.

As a member of Vorys' litigation group, Broz defends companies, banks, individuals and universities in a wide variety of litigation matters. She has experience in employment, commercial, securities, class action, and civil rights litigation. Broz is actively involved in a number of community organizations, and was recognized with an Award of Merit from the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children for her work as lead counsel on a pro bono Hague Convention lawsuit.

Broz received her J.D. from the Northwestern University School of Law, and her B.S. magna cum laude from Marquette University. She is a member of the Leadership Columbus Class of 2008.
