

Gibson Featured in LXBN TV Story Titled “Courts and Companies Take a Step Forward in Combatting Revenge Porn”

Related Professionals

Whitney C. Gibson

NEWS | 4.13.2015

Whitney Gibson, a partner in the Vorys Cincinnati office and the leader of the firm’s internet defamation group, was recently interviewed by LXBN TV’s Colin O’Keefe on two recent developments in internet law, the change in Twitter’s revenge porn policy, and the recent sentencing of a man to 18 years in jail for identity theft and extortion charges, in conjunction with his revenge porn website and affiliated removal website.

To watch the entire interview, click play on the video above.