Timothy McGranor, a partner in the Vorys Columbus office and a member of the litigation group, was quoted in an American Oil & Gas Reporter story titled “Shale Plays Rewriting Ohio Law Books.” The story focused on McGranor’s remarks at the Ohio Oil and Gas Association’s Winter Meeting.

The story states:

“McGranor, a partner in the Columbus office of Vorys, Sater, Seymour and Pease LLP, said that while the Ohio Supreme Court in 2010 ruled on five cases involving oil and gas leases, 88 relevant decisions were issues in the following five years.

‘There has a been a huge learning curve for the courts as they come to understand this industry and the laws that govern it,’ he said. ‘We are seeing better decisions today than we say at the beginning of the shale play.’”

The entire story appeared in the April 2016 edition of the American Oil and Gas Reporter.
