Emily Pan, vice managing partner in the Vorys Cincinnati office, was selected as one of Cincinnati Business Courier's 2019 40 Under 40 Honorees. According to the newspaper, honorees are "under the age of 40, who are making a difference in business and community." This year, the 40 honorees were selected from a pool of hundreds of nominees.

Pan's practice ranges from representing individuals with their estate planning and wealth transfer needs, corporate fiduciaries with respect to trust and estate administration issues and nonprofit organizations with their tax exempt compliance. Working with individuals, she assists with a variety of wealth transfer matters, including estate planning, charitable planning and business succession planning.

Outside of her legal practice, Pan holds a number of important leadership roles. She is a Fellow of the American College of Trusts and Estate Counsel (ACTEC). According to ACTEC, lawyers and law professors are elected to be fellows based on their outstanding reputation, exceptional skill, and substantial contributions to the field by lecturing, writing, teaching and participating in bar activities. Pan also serves on the Ohio State Bar Association's Estate Planning, Trust and Probate Law Section Council. The Council monitors Ohio's trust and estate law and drafts and proposes new legislation for consideration by the Ohio General Assembly.
