Vorys is pleased to announce that Anna Sanyal, an associate in the Vorys Columbus office, has been selected to be a member of the 2022 class of Legal Diversity (LCLD) Fellows. The LCLD Fellows program is an intensive, yearlong professional development program that mentors the legal industry's diverse leaders of tomorrow. The program connects high-potential experienced attorneys with leading general counsel and managing partners, and their peers for mentoring and career guidance.

Additionally, Christie Huang and Ryan Wheeler, associates in the Vorys Columbus office, were selected as 2022 class of LCLD Pathfinders. The LCLD Pathfinder program is a seven-month professional program designed to train high-performing, early-career attorneys on foundational leadership and relationship-building. The program provides participants with the opportunity to learn from top leaders in the legal profession along with experts in the fields of learning and development and executive coaching.

According to LCLD President Robert J. Grey, Jr., "The LCLD Pathfinder Program exposes participants to intensive training, experiential learning, and opportunities to network with peers and esteemed LCLD Fellows and Alumni in small group gatherings. It's a program that can truly enhance one's career."

LCLD is an organization of more than 400 corporate chief legal officers and law firm managing partners—the leadership of the profession—who have pledged themselves, through our Leaders at the Front initiative and other means, to creating a truly diverse U.S. legal profession. LCLD programs are designed to attract, inspire, and nurture the talent in society and within our organizations, thereby helping a new and more diverse generation of attorneys ascend to positions of leadership.
