Vorys is pleased to announce that Henrique Geigel, an associate in the Vorys Columbus office and a member of the litigation group, has been selected to be a member of the 2021 class of Fellows, and is participating in a landmark program created for mid-career attorneys by the Leadership Council on Legal Diversity (LCLD) to identify, train, and advance the next generation of leaders in the legal profession.

Additionally, Brian Simmons, an associate in the Vorys Akron office, and Jabari Shaw, an associate in the Vorys Cincinnati office, were selected as 2021 LCLD Pathfinders. The LCLD Pathfinder program trains early-career attorneys in critical career development strategies including leadership and the building of professional networks.

According to LCLD President Robert J. Grey, Jr., "The LCLD Pathfinder Program offers participants intensive training, online experiential learning, and opportunities to network with peers and esteemed LCLD Fellows and Alumni in small group gatherings. We believe it's a program that can enhance a person's career."

Founded in 2009, LCLD is a growing organization providing access to more than 285 corporate chief legal officers and law firms who are personally committed to creating a more diverse and inclusive legal profession. To learn more about LCLD, click here.
