Vorys, Sater, Seymour and Pease LLP has been named as one of the nation's "109 Leading Law Firms in Cybersecurity & Data Privacy 2020" by BTI Research.

BTI researchers received unbiased, direct feedback from more than 250 top privacy decision makers including chief compliance officers, chief privacy officers, chief privacy counsel, and general counsel in generating this list as a part of a broader BTI Cybersecurity & Data Privacy Report 2020. Vorys was highlighted as a "Cybersecurity Standout in State & Local Regulations."

For more than a decade, Vorys has worked with companies to keep safeguard their data and abide by constantly-changing domestic and global regulations. Vorys attorneys also have deep experience in advising a range of clients during all stages of the data lifecycle, including data security breaches, litigation, regulatory investigations, privileged and non-privileged forensic investigations, privacy policies and procedures, cross-border data transfers, employee privacy issues, training programs, compliance audits, commercial transactions, and email and telemarketing regulation. In addition, Vorys has helped clients prepare for and respond to data breaches, including some of the country's largest breaches.
