

Vorys Partners Participate in Business Roundtable with President Obama

Related Services

Government Relations

NEWS | 9.17.2012

Herbert Hedden and Frederick Ransier, partners in the Vorys Columbus office, participated in a business roundtable discussion with President Obama on September 17, 2012. The roundtable discussion, which had 17 total participants, covered a number of topics including health care, environmental regulations, minimum wage, immigration and debt reduction.

Hedden is a member of the Vorys commercial and real estate group and practices in the area of commercial law with a strong emphasis on franchising and distribution law. Ransier is a member of the Vorys bankruptcy practice and the government affairs and lobbying group. He has served as a Bankruptcy Trustee for the Southern District of Ohio since 1988 and represents clients in commercial and real estate matters.