Vorys ranked seventh nationally in the number of bank and thrift merger and acquisition transactions completed in FY2013, based on a report released by SNL Financial. Vorys was the only Ohio-based law firm in the top 30 on this list. The firm also ranked 14th nationally based on total value of the transactions.

Vorys provides a full array of legal services to both national- and state-chartered banks and thrifts, and their holding companies and subsidiaries. Vorys advises financial institution clients and their management and boards on issues related to their strategic options including expanding their businesses through mergers, acquisitions and formation of holding companies, raising capital, charter conversions branch sales and purchases and interstate branching. The firm also assists financial institution clients in complying with increasingly complex federal and state laws and regulations impacting the industry.
