Vorys, Sater, Seymour and Pease LLP is pleased to announce that partner Richard L. Moore has been named to the Cincinnati Bar Association Board of Trustees. The Board of Trustees represents the governing body of the association, with local attorneys volunteering their time to serve on the board.

Moore is a member of Vorys' litigation group, and has specific experience in the areas of employment discrimination, workers' compensation, construction, medical malpractice and personal injury. He is a member of the Black Lawyers Association of Cincinnati.

"I am pleased to be a part of the CBA leadership team because I hope to be able to apply the skills and talents I may have toward the betterment of the CBA and, by doing so, help the CBA better serve the Cincinnati legal community," said Moore.
