Petra Bergman, an associate in the Vorys Cincinnati office, was awarded the 2023 PLEDGE Emerging Leaders Award from the Cincinnati-Northern Kentucky Chapter of the Federal Bar Association. The Diversity & Inclusion Committee of the Chapter gives the award out each year to spotlight the professional successes of exceptional women lawyers in the greater Cincinnati area. Bergman was one of seven women who were honored this year.

Bergman has assisted in representing large corporations, small businesses and individuals in both state and federal courts. Her practice consists primarily of complex civil litigation, including specific experience with cases involving insurance disputes, consumer class actions, construction disputes, non-compete provisions and general breach of contract disputes.
