Jessica Cunning, a partner in the Vorys eControl group, has been chosen as a member of Leadership Akron's Community Leadership Institute (CLI) for 2026.

According to Akron Leadership, the CLI combines "individual development with community engagement, emphasizing leadership traits that are valuable in both community and professional settings." Participants will engage with local leaders, gaining insights on making an impact in the Akron community. The program will be organized into four thematic areas: "Building Community & Education," "Business & Innovation," "Arts & Culture" and "Civic Leadership & Justice."

Cunning's practice focuses on developing brand protection strategies in the United States and globally.
