Marcel Duhamel, a partner in Vorys Cleveland office and a member of the firm's litigation group, has been named to the “Notable Litigators & Trial Attorneys” list for 2025 by Crain's Cleveland Business.

According to Crain's, the featured attorneys are “exceptional litigators and trial attorneys whose expertise and commitment to justice sets them apart in the legal community,” who maintain “high standards of integrity and ethical practice.”

The feature highlighted Duhamel's role as the chief litigator during one of the “highest-profile bankruptcy hearings in Cleveland history” as well as his membership to the Consumer Litigation Committee for the American Bar Association.

Duhamel's diverse litigation practice is informed by more than 30 years of experience. He represents a variety of business clients in a wide range of disputes, both in court and before arbitration panels.
