Jolie Havens, partner in the Columbus office and member of the health care group, was quoted in a Law360 story titled “ACA Ruling May Forecast Future Trouble For CMS Changes.” The article summarizes how a recent court ruling regarding the Affordable Care Act (ACA) may signal potential challenges for future Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS) regulatory changes.

Havens explained that the decision clarifies a federal agency cannot use administrative authority to make policy changes to federal law.

“If Congress established a detailed statutory framework, as it did with the ACA, agencies generally may not add conditions, restrictions, or exceptions that Congress itself did not include.”
