Rodney Holaday, a partner in the Vorys Columbus office and a member of the eControl and litigation groups, has received the Excellence in Public Service Award from The Ohio State Moritz College of Law Public Interest Law Foundation (PILF). According to PILF, the award is presented to three Columbus attorneys who “demonstrate continued commitment to public interest work in our community.”

He received the award at the PILF’s annual auction, held at Ohio State’s Fawcett Center on March 6, 2025.

Holaday has served as the chair or co-chair of the Vorys’ Pro Bono Committee since 2011, supporting the firm’s pro bono causes across all 10 offices, both directly and through his mentorship of young attorneys.

About Vorys: Vorys was established in 1909 with just four attorneys and has grown to nearly 375 attorneys in 10 offices in Ohio, Washington, D.C., Texas, Pennsylvania, California, London and Berlin. Vorys currently ranks as one of the 200 largest law firms in the United States according to American Lawyer magazine. Learn more at vorys.com.

About The Public Interest Law Foundation: PILF is a 501(c)(3) organization dedicated to promoting student involvement in public interest and public sector legal practice, run through The Ohio State Moritz College of Law. Through its Summer Fellowship Program, PILF financially supports students who undertake non-paying public interest and public sector legal employment.
