Elizabeth Howard, partner in the Vorys Columbus office, was selected as one of Columbus Business First's 2023 40 Under 40 Nominees. According to the newspaper, honorees are "judged on their career accomplishments, community activity, and letters of recommendation, among other factors."

Howard focuses her practice on employee benefits. She has experience working with employers and multiemployer plans on benefit issues, including assisting with the design, administration and compliance of qualified retirement plans, deferred compensation plans, health and welfare plans, and fringe benefits. She also has experience representing clients with the Internal Revenue Service (IRS), Department of Labor (DOL) and the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation (PBGC).

Outside of her practice, Howard serves on the boards of two important community organizations: Thurber House and New Directions Career Center. She has served on the Thurber House board since 2017 and has recently been invited to serve on the New Directions Career Center board.
