Jason Mueller, a partner in the Houston office and a member of the intellectual property (IP) group, has been recognized as one of the Top 50 patent litigation attorneys in the United States by Patexia's Patent Litigation 2025 Intelligence Report.

According to Patexia, the Patent Litigation 2025 Intelligence Report "covers a comprehensive analysis of the past five years of patent litigation activity, covering over 18,000 cases, 17,000 patents and insights, reviewing 15,000 attorneys."

Mueller leads Vorys' trademark and copyright teams. As part of his practice, he serves as a lead trial lawyer for clients involved in patent, copyright, branding and corporate confidential information cases, including trade secret and technology matters. He has more than two decades of experience counseling clients on a wide array of IP matters including federal court litigation, appellate litigation, and international protection and enforcement.

About Vorys: Vorys was established in 1909 and currently has nearly 375 attorneys in 10 offices in Ohio, Washington, D.C., Texas, Pennsylvania, California, London and Berlin. Vorys currently ranks as one of the 200 largest law firms in the United States according to American Lawyer magazine.

About Patexia: Patexia is a community of tens of thousands of IP professionals worldwide, committed to bringing transparency, efficiency and optimal outcomes to the IP world.
