Lindsay Spillman, a senior attorney in the Vorys Cleveland office, was chosen to take part in the Federation of Defense & Corporate Counsel (FDCC) Ladder Down Cleveland Class of 2025.

According to the FDCC, Ladder Down is a “program dedicated to leadership empowerment, business development, and mentoring – each of which is critical for women lawyers to better position themselves for success.” Spillman will partake in a year-long program that includes training and career development with FDCC coaches and sponsors.

Spillman is a member of the firm’s tax group, with a practice focusing on real property tax valuation disputes and appeals. She has reviewed, evaluated and contested property tax assessments in more than 20 states.
