Vorys is pleased to announce that Natalia Steele, a partner and member of the Vorys eControl group, has been named to the 2026 edition of Crain's Cleveland Business' "Notable Women in Law" list.

According to Crain's, those chosen "are making their mark in and out of the courtroom" and the recognition showcases their "commitment to advancing [their] industry and community." Those included are selected through a peer nomination and editorial review process.

Steele's practice focuses on counseling businesses on protecting brand value through online sales control solutions that protect brand equity and support long-term brand growth. Her areas of focus include identifying and neutralizing issues arising from unauthorized sales, channel conflict, MAP violations, brand equity erosion, product diversion and quality control issues, among others.
