Vorys is pleased to announce the firm's Orange County office has moved into a new office location that is nearly double the size of the previous location. The firm also continued its steady growth in Orange County by welcoming two experienced and highly decorated employment attorneys into the new space.

"Since 2021, when our office opened in the midst of the COVID-19 pandemic, we've helped a growing number of clients from across the U.S. with their legal matters in California," said Tom McCormick, managing partner of the Vorys' Orange County office. "As a result, we have expanded our team and outgrown our space. We're excited to be in a larger office that can accommodate our continued growth and the expansion of the legal services that we provide."

The new office is located at:

2211 Michelson Drive
Suite 500
Irvine, CA 92612

In 2025, the firm has also welcomed Brent Giddens and Brian Cole, II as of counsel in the Orange County office. They have decades of experience representing and counseling clients on a wide variety of labor and employment matters including wage and hour disputes, policies and practices, wrongful termination, discrimination, harassment, retaliation, breach of contract and unfair competition.

"Brent and Brian have outstanding reputations as both employment law litigators and counselors," said Mark Knueve, chair of the Vorys labor and employment group. "Their experience representing retailers, consumer product manufacturers, and a wide variety of other industries in California strongly bolsters the firm's nationally recognized retail law practice and strengthens the work that we can do for our clients in California and beyond."

The Vorys Orange County office has more than 15 attorneys and patent professionals. The team assists businesses with California operations across multiple industries, including retail, banking, eCommerce and transportation and logistics, among others.
