Vorys is pleased to announce that Frank Zonars, a partner in the corporate group, has been chosen as a member of the 2026 Columbus Business First 40 Under 40 class.

According to the publication, the 40 Under 40 Awards honor “rising stars in the local business world who have distinguished themselves in their companies, their communities and their industries.”

Zonars’ practice focuses on advising privately owned companies in merger and acquisition and joint venture transactions. He represents private equity firms and their portfolio companies, family offices, startup companies and other growth-oriented companies and entrepreneurs across a wide range of industries.

Outside of his legal practice, Zonars is a member Association for Corporate Growth’s Young ACG Board, a member of the COSI Blast! Host Committee and active cantor at The Annunciation Greek Orthodox Cathedral.
