Located blocks away from the White House, our Washington, D.C. office was opened in 1975. The office is home to more than 20 lawyers who practice in the areas of intellectual property, trademark and patent law, risk management and professional malpractice, litigation, international trade, and federal and state environmental compliance, real estate, corporate and tax credits. Our Washington lawyers also represent our clients before Congress and the dozens of federal regulatory agencies located in the Washington, D.C. metropolitan area.

Our Washington lawyers actively support the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts, the Susan G. Komen National Race for the Cure, the Wolf Trap Foundation for the Performing Arts, the National Institute for Trial Advocacy, the Georgetown University Alumni Association, and the National Italian American Foundation, among other civic and charitable organizations in the nation's capital.
