CLIENT ALERT | 6.30.2010

On June 25, 2010, the United States Senate and the United States House of Representatives completed the reconciliation process for the Restoring American Financial Stability Act of 2010, sponsored by Senator Christopher Dodd and the Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act of 2009. The final legislation is known as the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act of 2010, and represents one of the most comprehensive and broad-sweeping pieces of financial reform legislation since the Great Depression.
