

Public Finance

Navigating the public finance arena has become increasingly complex as issuers face challenges related to new and innovative financing tools, increasing scrutiny in the current regulatory environment and SEC oversight of the municipal bond marketplace. Our attorneys are experienced in maneuvering these ever-changing issues and make it their priority to stay up to date on all the latest changes that effect this industry, and its many subsectors, to ensure their clients stay well informed.

We have earned a national reputation within the subspecialty of implementing federal tax credits for qualifying projects; and we have deep experience and specialized knowledge regarding public finance borrowings including governmental bonds, private activity bonds, housing bonds, tax credit transactions and distressed workouts. Our attorneys have a national reputation and a proven track record for providing exceptional legal representation in this multidisciplinary area of law.

Our Public Finance practice attorneys support clients across various industries including higher education, not-for-profit organizations such as private foundations, real estate, insurance, and health care in matters related to advising bond underwriters and credit enhancement providers, and serving as issuer's counsel to functioning as a trustee, special HUD or lender's counsel in affordable housing deals. In addition, we serve as special counsel in public finance transactions.

We serve as:

- Bond Counsel
- Bank Counsel
- Letter of Credit Bank Counsel
- Credit Enhancement Provider's Counsel
- Trustee's Counsel
- Issuer's Counsel
- Special HUD Counsel
- Underwriters' Counsel
- Financial Advisor's Counsel
