OVERVIEW

Andrew Feldstein is an Associate in the Health Care and Litigation Practice Group. Prior to joining the firm, Andrew gained valuable experience defending medical malpractice and long-term care matters. Andrew has handled sizeable caseloads consisting of these matters, while participating at every phase of the litigation process.

As an undergraduate at Pennsylvania State University, Andrew saw a vision for his future legal career and set that in motion with his legal internships in the summers. Andrew received a broad range of early exposure to the legal world by way of personal injury law, criminal defense law, real estate law, and family law. Andrew continued these positions as a summer associate prior to graduating law school, with his focus on personal injury law. For Andrew, this has proved a seamless transition into the world of healthcare defense work.
