OVERVIEW

Bin "Bryan" Lu is an Associate in the Commercial Litigation Practice at the firm. Prior to joining the firm, Bryan was a Judicial Law Clerk to the Honorable Karen M. Dean for the Circuit Court for Wicomico County in Maryland.

Bryan previously worked as a Law Clerk at Apex Systems and held internships at Beijing Dadi Law Firm in China and Altman & Altman LLP in Boston, Massachusetts. These roles provided him with insight into corporate compliance, cross-border legal issues, and client advocacy. Bryan is fluent in English and Mandarin, and his multicultural background enables him to serve a diverse client base with understanding and precision.

During law school, Bryan was a Staff Editor for the Public Interest Law Review for the University of Richmond School of Law. He also took a role as a Student Attorney for the University of Richmond School of Law IP and Transactional Law Clinic.
