OVERVIEW

Laura Hutchinson is a Partner in the Litigation Practice located in the firm's Philadelphia Office, who focuses on medical malpractice claims. She represents physicians, hospitals, nurses, and other healthcare practitioners against professional liability claims, focusing her practice on claims of medical malpractice. Her practice also includes coverage disputes, bad faith matters, and complex commercial litigation.

Laura is active on several firm committees including the Associate Development Training Program and the Women's Initiative and coordinates education programs focused on legal issues across various practice areas. She formerly served as the Pennsylvania Bar Association's Young Lawyer's Division Liaison for the Aeronautical & Space Law Section.

Throughout law school, Laura worked as a law clerk in the firm's Healthcare group. Her work included the analysis of medical records, legal research and motion practice, assisting with trial preparation and developing case strategies. In addition, she represented the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania as a Certified Legal Intern at the Philadelphia District Attorney's Office, prosecuting cases with the misdemeanor crimes unit.
