Associate

Philadelphia, PA
t: 215.864.7106
f: 215.789.7583

Drawing on his broad litigation background and judicial experience, Patrick brings a practical, detail-driven, and client-focused approach to complex civil litigation and appellate practice.

OVERVIEW

Patrick is a skilled civil litigator with extensive experience representing clients in complex disputes across state and federal courts in Pennsylvania, New York, New Jersey, and additional jurisdictions on a pro hac vice basis, including Montana and Washington, as well as in AAA and JAMS proceedings. He has significant experience first-chairing bench trials and arbitrations; preparing clients for trials, hearings, and depositions; taking and defending depositions; managing all phases of discovery; and working closely with clients throughout the litigation lifecycle.

Before joining White and Williams LLP, Patrick worked as a litigation attorney at a full-service law firm located in Montgomery County, Pennsylvania. There, he handled civil matters throughout the United States at the state and federal levels from inception to close, along with numerous appeals in the appellate courts of Pennsylvania and New York. Before entering private practice, Patrick served as a Judicial Law Clerk to the Honorable Shelley Robins New and as a Judicial Fellow to the Honorable Daniel J. Anders in the First Judicial District of Pennsylvania.

While in law school, Patrick served as a Legal Intern to the Honorable Anthony H. Williams in the Pennsylvania State Senate, and as a Judicial Intern to the Honorable Daniel J. Anders in the First Judicial District of Pennsylvania.
