OVERVIEW

Sandra A. Benjamin is an Associate in the Litigation Department focusing on catastrophic loss matters, premises liability, construction litigation, professional liability, products liability, commercial contract disputes, and medical malpractice.

As a litigator, Sandra has drafted discovery responses, motions, legal briefs, pleadings, contracts and intricate legal memoranda for clients. Sandra has extensive experience reviewing medical documents, government records, and facilitating client interaction.

Prior to joining White and Williams, Sandra gained experience as a litigation association in a Southern New Jersey firm representing insurance companies and their insured in a diverse array of civil litigation matters. Prior to practice, Sandra served an externship with the Honorable Judge Mark A. Kearney in the Eastern District of Pennsylvania and interned with major in-house companies, such as Comcast and Capri Holdings Ltd., gaining invaluable insight to a client's needs.
