

Victoria L. Kager

Associate

Philadelphia, PA t: 215.864.6388
f: 215.789.7604

OVERVIEW

Victoria Kager is an Associate in the Health Care Practice Group. Prior to joining the firm, Victoria gained experience at several mid-size law firms focusing on long-term care defense, trust and estate, litigation and nonprofit matters. She has handled medical malpractice and premises liability matters at all stages of litigation.

Prior to graduating from law school, Victoria served as an intern with Penn Medicine Lancaster General Health focused on research and analyzing federal grant compliance. She is a former teacher with Teach for America where she served as Curriculum Chair of the Science Department at a middle school in Wilmington, DE.

RECOGNITION AND INVOLVEMENT

Victoria was a Beasley Scholar at Temple University Beasley School of Law and was recognized as a Rubin Public Interest Law Honor Society Fellow upon graduation in recognition of her public service efforts.

PUBLICATIONS

Revisiting the Treating Physician Rule: PA Supreme Court Limits Ability of Defense Counsel to Represent Nonparty Treating Physician
Healthcare Alert, 7.2.24

PRACTICES

Healthcare
Litigation

BAR AND COURT ADMISSIONS

New Jersey
Pennsylvania

EDUCATION

Temple University Beasley School of Law,
JD, cum laude, 2022

Relay Graduate School of Education, MA,
2019

University of Delaware, BS, BA, 2017