

Patricia Santelle to Moderate "Career and Client Development in a Hybrid World from a Woman Practitioner's Perspective"

Hosted by Rutgers Law Alumnae Network, Rutgers Law School Women's Law Caucus and the Minority Student Program
Rutgers Law School Building/Student Center, Camden, NJ
3.26.25

KEY ATTORNEYS

Patricia B. Santelle

In celebration of Women's History Month, Patti Santelle, Chair Emeritus/Former Managing Partner, will be moderating a panel for a CLE program on "Career and Client Development in a Hybrid World from a Woman Practitioner's Perspective," at Rutgers Law School, Camden Campus, on Wednesday, March 26, from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m. The panel will address the impact of a hybrid work environment on career and client development and share best practices, tools and resources to support advancement of women in the legal profession.

White and Williams is proud to sponsor the CLE Program as well as the Third Annual Judicial Reception Honoring Rutgers Law School Alumnae, which will commence following the panel discussion at 6 p.m. As Co-Chair of the Rutgers Law Alumnae Network, Ms. Santelle will be among the presenters at the reception.

Both events are hosted by Rutgers Law Alumnae Network, Rutgers Law School Women's Law Caucus and the Minority Student Program.

To learn more about the CLE or Judicial Reception, click here.