

Local Government Law: What Attorneys Need to Know

National Business Institute (Scranton, PA)
3.13.15

PRACTICE AREAS

Labor and Employment

The National Business Institute hosted a one day seminar for attorneys and government officials on March 13, 2015 in Scranton, PA that addressed cases and legal issues in government law. John Baker presented on human resources related issues including new developments in employment law, conducting employee investigations, protecting the privacy rights of employees, and improving personnel policies.